

LORETTA LOVE HUFF
The Dream Leader for Business™

People LOVE Loretta Love Huff – Here's what they have to say...

"It is always a challenge to find a speaker that will really "WOW" a group of Sales Reps, Sales Managers, VPs of Sales, CEOs and Entrepreneurs for our events. If you can't catch and hold their attention within the first few seconds, you are probably doomed. Loretta's approach to our event theme was more than I expected! The group was energized and motivated from the beginning until the end. Our goal was to increase membership by at least 30%. Based on Loretta's presentation, our membership doubled! Loretta was passionate, driven, spoke with conviction and definitely WOW'ed our group!"

Elouise Nathaniel
VP of Events
National Sales Network, Phoenix Chapter

"Loretta's material is top-notch! Her presentations are polished and professional which wins over the audience. She knows her subject and uses personal stories to help illustrate her points. I've enjoyed working with her every chance I've had. I would recommend Loretta to anyone because she's able to tailor her delivery for any audience."

Gail Rittenhouse
Training Manager
State of Arizona

"Loretta provided tools to identify areas of improvement and guidelines to make those changes happen. Her delivery was high energy, entertaining and filled with great info."

Irene Elias
Henkel/Dial Corporation

"You were so inspirational! Everyone took home a new understanding of leadership and left feeling more empowered in their business with new insight from the tools you provided. The feedback was extremely positive."

Judy O'Higgins
Program Chairperson
NAWBO (National Association of Women Business Owners) Sedona/Verde Valley

"The thing I liked best was that I walked out with tangible actions – things I can do and apply to my job, not just philosophy and theory!"

Cindy Goertz
Maricopa County Juvenile Courts

"Loretta Love Huff provided a wonderful event on clarifying personal and business mission, vision and goals for the Alliance of Technology and Women (ATW) in Phoenix.

95% of the attendees rated the session 'Very valuable'. Their comments included remarks such as "very timely; effective; informative; great; fantastic; excellent; high energy, positive, great tools; excellent."

As a meeting planner, I found Loretta to be easy to work with, focused and organized."

Lysia Hand
Program Director
Alliance of Technology and Women (ATW)

"The workshops you gave during our annual Coalition Roundtable & Professional Development Institute were great! There is a definite need among state domestic violence coalitions to become better informed on communication and leadership issues. Your workshops provided excellent opportunities for us to dialog, ask questions and voice opinion. Thank you again for such informative presentations."

Mao Yang
National Network Against Domestic Violence

"Morale has risen substantially. The culture has accomplished the shift to inclusive participation and empowerment."

Sylvia Hines
Executive Director
Support Network for Battered Women

"A Big Thank You for being our presenter. Everyone that I talked to gave you high marks for your presentation and because of you we had more in attendance at our meeting. You will always be welcome to our meeting and please let me know if you would like to speak again."

Al Quihuis
Speaker Coordinator
Chandler Chamber of Commerce – Diversity Council

"Loretta's keynote on wellness recharged our staff from the challenging work they do with high-risk families. Loretta delivered what she promised with great enthusiasm. I highly recommend Loretta to anyone who is in need of a great presenter. She did a great job!"
